Dedication

We, the Annual Staff of 1965, wish to dedicate this first complete school-year edition of "The Comet" to the LETTERMEN of Cassville High School. Through their tireless effort, good sportsmanship, and enthusiastic school spirit they provided the entire student body, faculty, and community with many proud and unforgettable moments. Some of the highlights of this great year we have tried to recapture in this edition of "The Comet," but because it is impossible to cover all the events we want to take this opportunity to say, "CONGRATULATIONS BOYS!"

We would also like to take this opportunity to say "thank you" to all who helped make this yearbook possible. A special "thanks" goes to Mr. Lorscheter, our adviser, who gave us the encouragement to do our best.

FOREWORD

The 1965 "Comet Cavalcade" is a completely revised edition of the former high school annual. Prominent features of the revision are highlighted by a complete pictorial review of school activities at both the elementary and high school level. "The Comet" staff placed special emphasis on detail, which resulted in an excellent selection of pictures depicting school life from enrollment day on August 26th of 1964 to senior commencement exercises on May 26, 1965.

Creating and publishing "The Comet" is an enormous task. It requires countless sessions of preliminary planning, developing hundreds of photographs, tedious days of copy layout, and sufficient finances to be self supporting. The burden of responsibility has rested with Carolyn Dalton, editor. Donnalene Bartels capably served as assistant editor and Susan Uppena assumed the fund raising duties as business manager. The guiding hand in the moments of distress was supplied by Mr. Richard Lorscheter, faculty advisor. Financial assistance was received from local and area business establishments and from the sale of "The Comet" to students and friends of Cassville Public Schools.

"Comet Cavalcade" of 1965 is a degree of excellence which staff members of future years must strive to surpass. Congratulations for a task well done!!

The Senior Class of 1965 toured the big city of Chicago on April 15 for their class trip. At 2:00 a.m. not quite-awake Seniors boarded the bus which had been chartered when train reservations were canceled because of the flood.

During our twelve hours in Chicago our burning feet took us to breakfast at O'Hare Field, a tour of the Museum of Science and Industry, lunch at McCormick Place, tour of the Museum of Natural History, the Aquarium, and the Lincoln Park Zoo. After a journey to the 40th floor of the Prudential Building, we ate dinner downtown. A tour of the city at night led us on our way home. 11:15 found 40 exhausted Seniors on the school steps.

On Friday, May 1, 1964, the Class of 1965 held their prom "Relay to Romance" at the new high school gym.

Not present in the picture are Mark Haas, miniature king, and Sherry Kraus, miniature queen.

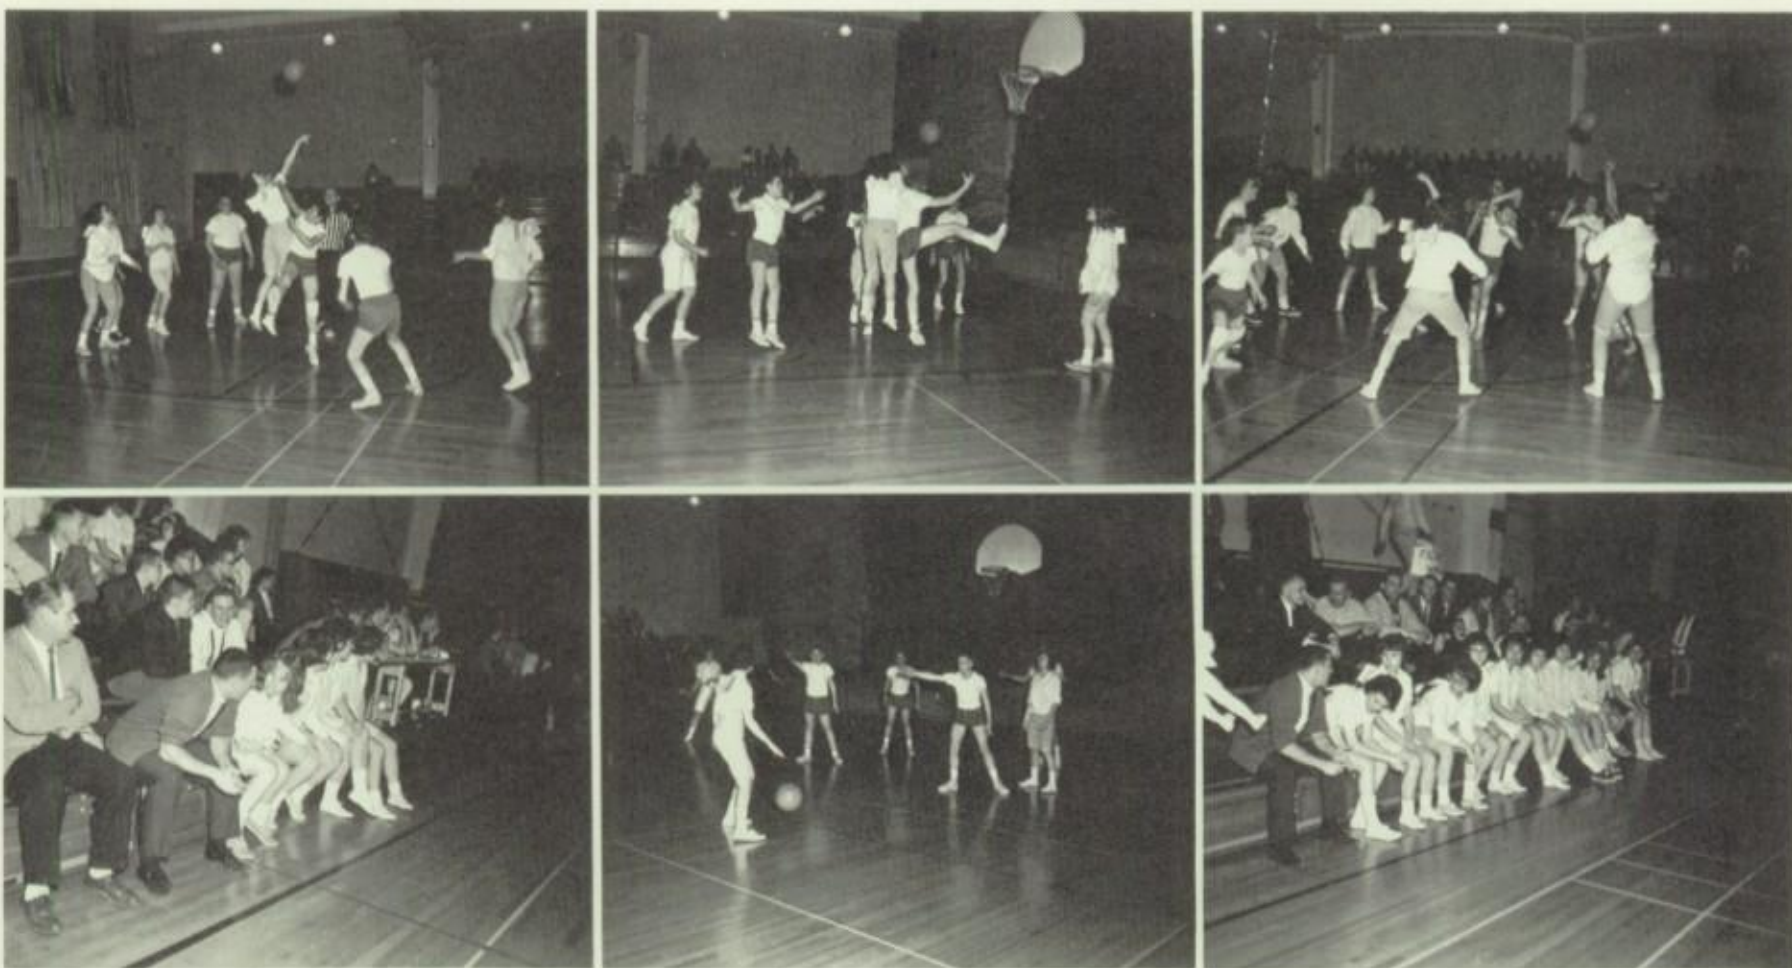

Decorations included a false ceiling and a moon garden in the refreshment area. The central attraction was a huge silver satellite in the center of the false ceiling.

Oscar Wilde's immortal classic "The Importance of Being Earnest" was presented by the Class of 1965 on May 8, 1964. The prom necessitated a small cast, chosen from the entire class. Mrs. Benish, director, and Carolyn Dalton, student director deserve special recognition for a job well done.

HOMECOMING COURT: L. to R.: S. Kitto, D. Uppena, N. Lau, D. Kruger, J. Cobean, D. Reed, B. Kirschbaum, L. Kitelinger, D. Parker, L. Vogt.

*King Denny and Queen Janis reigned over the dance.
Victory, royalty, and music the night did enhance.*

There were many thrilling events which led to the success of our 1964 Homecoming. Homecoming festivities got under way with stunt night when each class, organization, and the faculty presented humorous skits. The king, queen, and the court were announced also.

Following the snake dance down to the football field, everyone participated in the bonfire rally.

The Homecoming parade preceded the victorious Homecoming game over Potosi. Dancing brought a cheerful end to the Homecoming festivities, and we were proud to have had Janis Cobean and Dennis Reed reign over them.

The Marching Band, Pep Band, and Concert Band were under the direction of Mr. Orville Harvat. The Concert Band and the Marching Band were the same group while the Pep Band was composed of trustworthy volunteers.

The Marching Band's principal performance was the Homecoming Parade and Half-Time Show, October 16, 1964. The Pep Band entertained the fans at the football and basketball games also this year. The Concert Band, possibly the most active group, had a Fall, Christmas and Spring Concert. They also participated in the Mass Band Concert, March 25th and the Band Contest on May 8th at Prairie du Chien.

The Courier, our school news publication, has done an excellent job of reporting school events and activities this year. Linette Zimmer was Editor-in-Chief, and her assistants were LuAnn Reed, Rae Ann Fried, Kathy Meighan and Donna Adrian. Terry Dalton was in charge of sports, and the art work was done by Joyce Hauk. Reporters were Christine Lau, Janis Cobean, Nancy Lau, Mary Felder, Sue Uppena and Sue Hochhausen. The office practice class did the typing for the five issues of the paper.

We especially want to thank the Courier Staff for the effort they have put forth to provide the padded covers for our COMET this year.

Kitto, C. Lau, M. Bartels, S. Schier, D. Parker, Advisor, Mrs. Benish.

The Library Staff was a busy crew; we worked with books old and new.

The library club has experienced a most active year, much to the enjoyment of its members. Of course, the main purpose of the club is to assist Mrs. Benish, the club's advisor, in certain special duties. Unknown to the common student, the many books on the shelves each entail many hours of cataloguing, sorting, repairing, and distributing. The members of the club are helpers who do general repair work, check out the books to the students, and keep the library in order.

At the beginning of the year, the club elected officers who are as follows:

President--Shirley Haas
Vice-President--Terry Dalton
Secretary--Rosemary Breuer
Treasurer--Jan Klauer

Approximately every week, a special library meeting was called. During this meeting, new policies were introduced to the librarians and special mass jobs were completed.

The highlight of the year was National Library Week, April 25 to May 1. The club took an active part in the week by arranging various attractive window displays in the stores downtown. Each of the six displays reminded every passer-by of the importance of reading, no matter who you are.

We also took the opportunity to hold our club party during National Library Week. The entertainment, the food, the fun, and the memories were delightful.

The library club serves as a definite benefit to its members. Here, for the first time, each member has fully realized the delight, wonder, exuberance, love, sorrow, and interest which is only present in the world of books.

We tasted the sweetness of victory and the bitterness of defeat, yet our "Season of Success" was excitement from beginning to end. The picture in the upper left shows the Comets off to a good start by defeating Potosi 80-38. We ended on a triumphant note by defeating Bloomington 78-59 (upper right) and becoming Blackhawk League Champs. Our tournament trail began by defeating Coach Boldt's Boys from West Grant 83-55 (lower left), but our victory hopes for state were ended when the Flying Arrows (lower right) defeated us 50-36 in the Sub-Sectional.

This picture was taken Friday night, February 26, after the Cassville Comets defeated the Bloomington Bluejays in their last conference game of the season. This decisive win placed the victorious Comets first in the league--
BLACKHAWK CHAMPS 1965.

On the afternoon of March 12, we celebrated the Comets' "Season of Success" with an assembly and a social hour. After reminiscing over a few of the most memorable "moments" of the season, we came to the more important part of the program--the presentation of trophies. The Comets received the league Championship trophy, the tournament Regional Championship trophy, and a plaque from the Pep Club congratulating them for their success. Trophies were awarded to Dale Kruger for the most assists and to Ken Kartman for the most rebounds. The most valuable player trophy passed from Ken Kartman to Gale Kruger in, perhaps, the most "touching" moment of the season. Thank you, boys, for this proof of the Comets' teamwork and sportsmanship. Although he didn't receive a trophy for his fine work, Mr. Kieser added to our honors by being the Blackhawk League Coach-of-the-Year.

Our cooks showed their support by baking several large cakes in honor of the team and the cheerleaders. After everyone had their share of ice-cream and cake, the record-player was turned on and we danced until bus time.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The 1964-65 Junior Class Play which was presented at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, October 30 and Sunday, November 2 was a marvelous success. "Annie Get Your Gun" was written by Dorothy and Herbert Fields. Irving Berlin wrote the music. A few of the songs were: "There's no business like show business," "They say that falling in love is wonderful" and many others. It had a cast of sixty three, which permitted the entire Junior Class to participate. The scenery, costumes, and acting all combined to make the play a success both nights. The play was under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Benish and Miss Donna Blumer.

JUNIOR PROM

The theme for the 1965 Junior Prom was "Dear Heart." On the evening of April 23rd everyone enjoyed dancing to the lovely music of Irv Behr. The gym was beautifully decorated in colors of red, white, and pink, with the main decoration of three large pink hearts, in the center of the floor, which made an archway for the Grand March. The following people made up the 1965 Prom Court: King Dave Meier, Queen Mary Schauf, Prince Tony Tornowske, Princess Donna Shaben, Duke Jim Bausch, Duchess Sandi Buschbom, Count Jerry Schmidt, Countess Charlene Mayne, Earl Larry Schauf, Lady Cheryl Kitto, Lord Dennis Kirschbaum, Lady Cathy Rauch, Knight Mick Becwar, Lady Sandy Flesch.

THAT'S SUCCESS

It's doing your job the best you can
And being just to your fellow man;
It's making money--but holding friends
And true to your aims and ends;
It's figuring how and learning why
And looking forward and thinking high
And dreaming a little and doing much.
It's keeping always in closest touch
With what is finest in word and deed;
It's being thorough, yet making speed;
It's daring blithely the field of chance
While making labor a brave romance;
It's going onward despite defeat
And fighting stanchly, but keeping sweet;
It's being clean and it's playing fair;
It's laughing lightly at Dame Despair;
It's looking up at the stars above
And drinking deeply of life and love.
It's struggling on with the will to win
But taking loss with a cheerful grin;
It's sharing sorrow and work and mirth
And making better this good old earth;
It's serving, striving through strain and stress;
It's doing your noblest--that's Success!

CLASS SONG *

Moderato

The musical score is written on ten staves. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked 'Moderato' and the initial dynamic is 'mp' (mezzo-piano). The melody is simple and melodic, with lyrics written below the notes. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and dynamic markings like 'rit.' (ritardando) and 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The lyrics are: 'Though we now are grad-u-a-ting, though we'll soon be far a-part, O-ur mem'ries we will treasure deep with-in our hearts. We would like to say we'll miss you, and all the fun we've had. We would like to give a thank you to our Moms and Dads. We ex-tend a har-dy thank you to each and eve-ry one who might have ev-er helped us i-n a-ny-thing we've done. Good-bye to our friends and fam-lies, now we'll go our sep'rate ways. We al-ways will re-mem-ber O-ur high school days. We ex-high school days. May the Good Lord bless and keep you till we meet, Till we meet a-gain.' The score ends with a double bar line.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Class of 1965, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath by our own free will the following valuable possessions and talents to the faculty and underclassmen of Cassville High School. To the FACULTY we will a summer of peace and quiet to recover from the trials and tribulations of our Senior year. To the JUNIORS we will a very successful Senior year of their own and also some extremely peaceful class meetings. To the SOPHOMORES we leave all of our leftover Prom and Homecoming decorations and ideas from the last four years. To the FRESHMEN we leave our great study habits and all of our second-hand text books, workbooks and test papers. They probably won't do you any good, but we had to give you something. The SENIORS will MRS. BENISH a fourth hour study hall that can tell time. Also an alarm clock so that everyone will start the race to the lunch line at the same time. The SIXTH HOUR PAC CLASS wills MR. KIESER all of our pamphlets to use for fuel on those cold winter nights. Also, another set of keys or a door which can't be locked from the inside and seven sixth hour PAC classes just because we know how he must have looked forward to sixth hour every day this year. The FOURTH HOUR SENIOR ART GIRLS will MRS. NALAN some oil paints to replace the ones they used. They also will her another group of Senior girls to gab the way they did. DENNIS REED wills MR. IBINGER one advanced algebra book. He says it made a very nice pillow. DENNIS LEY wills MR. LORSCHETER his debits and credits in bookkeeping. The SECOND HOUR PAC CLASS wills MR. KIESER another quiet, well-behaved class like it was. The SENIOR GIRLS will MISS KOWALKOWSKI another fearless basketball team to make lay ups as well as the Seniors did. GARY MEIER wills MR. TORNOWSKE a brilliant physics class to make up for the one he was forced to endure this year. The SENIOR BASKETBALL PLAYERS will all of their after-school practices to next year's team. TOM NOEL, GALE and DALE KRUGER and KEN KARTMAN will three feet of height to MR. KIESER to be distributed among his basketball players in any way he sees it. The SECOND YEAR SPANISH CLASS will MISS BLUMER another class of four ambitious, intelligent Seniors to take their place next year. STEVE KAUFFMAN wills MARY ANN his green bomb to ride to school in when he's gone. He also wills his brother DON better grades in algebra than he had. DONNALENE BARTELS wills her sister MAGGIE enough "challenges" to last the entire summer. SHIRLEY SLATER wills SUE DIETRICH a year's supply of life-savers. LEO KITELINGER wills MARY SCHAUFF and SUE UPPENA three new senior boys to bother them in advanced algebra class. DANNY LENZ wills the JUNIORS a good English background and lots of paper; they're sure to need both. LUANN BAUSCH wills her chewing gum to CAROL BIGGIN. RAE ANN FRIED wills MARLENE ESSER more rides to Dubuque. TERI KIRSCHBAUM wills SANDY RITTER her art ability. JIM CADWELL wills his driver's license to "JAKE" so that he can rod around in his big, hot, overhauled, purple bomb. KATHY MEIGHAN wills MARILYN CORNELL a three year's supply of patience for those days when she'd like to be out horseback riding, but has to go to school instead. DANNY LENZ wills JERRY SCHMIDT one of his old "Honda" tires; he may need a spare this summer. LINNETTE ZIMMER wills her lucky typewriter, number 13, to SUE UPPENA so that Sue will be able to breeze through seventh words a minute. She wills her straight A's in Spanish to MARK KARTMAN, and to BECKY KESSLER she wills the headache of being newspaper editor. MARLENE VOGT wills KAREN VOGT her sewing ability in home ec. in hopes that her suit will be finished five years sooner than Marlene's was. She also wills ARCHIE WIMER her drivers license--the one she doesn't have. To JIM BROUILLARD she wills a blonde Senior girl because he had so much fun teasing one this year. NANCY BLUM wills her brother Mike a tricycle when he's sixteen. She says she's sure he'll never be allowed to drive anything else. JANIS COBEAN wills JAN DORWARD a year's supply of salted nut rolls. To MARY SCHAUFF she wills all the fun she's had this year as cheerleader and in various other pursuits. CHRISTINE LAU wills her sister NANCY a new chaperone for next year. She wills her Pep Club presidency to SHERRY BLASK and her Spanish ability to DENNIS KIRSCHBAUM. LAUREL LEY wills MARK KARTMAN and ART BIGGIN three girls to tell jokes to in third hour study hall. DENNIS REED wills his lucky football T-shirt to DAVID VOGT in hopes that some of Denny's flashing speed will rub off on him. To her brothers, DICK and TOM, JOYCE HAUKE wills her driver's license--on condition that they share it and custody of the Honda equally. TOM NOEL wills his seat in sixth hour PAC class to TOM WALKER so that he can sit right behind Larry Koehler. ROD KLAUER wills his seat in sixth hour PAC class to LARRY KOEHLER so that he can sit in front of Tom Walker. LUANN REED wills PATSY WALSH her school-skipping days; if all of their absent days are added, Patsy won't be coming to school at all next year. DIANE MEIER wills BETTY REDMAN more weekends to spend with the gang. To her brother DOUG she wills her I.D. card--the one she doesn't have. DONNA ADRIAN wills PATSY WALSH her foot-mobile for those long walks home. CORA RAE KESSLER wills JAKE DAVID her father's collection of junk cars and boat motors. DANNY KITTO would like to will to some deserving junior, one chair in English, which is guaranteed to give at least 180 hours of peaceful sleep and a "C" average. To LARRY SCHAUFF he wills the chair beside the treasurer's desk at FFA meetings. MORRIE BAUSCH wills next year's bookkeeping class his workbook, since it's never been used.

SHIRLEY HAAS wills DONNA SHABEN another patient, but deaf, French horn player to blow unmercifully loudly into her ear in band. KEN KARTMAN wills LAUREEN ZIMMER a new red Farmal tractor so that she can come to all of the high school activities her sister missed. CAROLYN DALTON wills all of her unused study halls to next year's annual editor. Also, to BEAVER she wills a "C" at the Local Forensics Contest next year. Remember, Beaver, you can't win them all. DENNIS LAU wills EUGENE KIRSCHBAUM his shyness. ALBERTA BREUER wills SHIRLEY GARNER her sewing skills. JAN KLAUER wills MR. TORNOWSKE a picture of the Lone Ranger to remember that dreadful day in history. LAUREL LEY and BONNIE KIRSCHBAUM will DIANE GLASSMAKER and DONNA SHABEN the good times they had at the out-of-town dances. BILL BIGGIN wills next year's physics class a de-fogging machine because some of his classmates needed one so badly this year.

SIGNED, SEALED, AND DELIVERED BY THE CLASS OF 1965.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS: Mr. Tornowske and Mr. Morley.

CLASS HISTORY

On August 28, 1961, the doors of Cassville High School were opened wide. Yes, the stage was set for the first of the four acts of the play--"The Class of 1965." The actors, numbering forty-four, were Donna Adrian, Donnalene Bartels, Luann Bausch, Maurice Bausch, William Biggin, Nancy Blum, Steve Bossert, Sharon Bradley, Alberta Breuer, Jim Cadwell, Danny Cooper, Carolyn Dalton, Mike Davidson, Jim Eich, Linda Flitsch, Rae Ann Fried, Ken Kartman, Steve Kauffman, Cora Rae Kessler, Bonnie Kirschbaum, Teri Kirschbaum, Leo Kitelinger, Danny Kitto, Jan Klauer, Rod Klauer, Dale Kruger, Gale Kruger, Christine Lau, Dennis Lau, Daniel Lenz, Dennis Ley, Laurel Ley, Diane Meier, Gary Meier, Kathy Meighan, Tom Noel, Mike Pauley, Dennis Reed, Luann Reed, Warren Stearns, Jerry Unbehaun, Marlene Vogt, Robert Walsh, and Linnette Zimmer. The play was directed by Mr. Craig, Mr. Langer, and Mr. Okey, our advisors. The leading roles went to Bob Walsh, president; Jim Eich, vice-president; Jan Klauer, secretary; and Bonnie Kirschbaum, treasurer. We switched leads in the middle of the year, and Joyce Hauk became president, while Gale Kruger took over as vice-president. This scene followed the exit of Jim Eich and Bob Walsh and the entrance of Shirley Haas and Joyce Hauk. The cast chose Cora Rae Kessler and Leo Kitelinger to represent them on the Student Council. Probably the most embarrassing, humiliating, funny scene in the entire play came on September 13, 1961, in the form of Initiation. How well the actors remember their costumes and make-up: the boys wore a skirt, gunny sack top, a swimming cap, nylons and thongs--the girls wore long underwear, a swimming suit, an apron, engineer boots, and a can on their head of just-washed, un-set, un-combed hair. We carried dolls and kissed the seniors' feet while lying on our stomachs. We learned our required lines well due to repetition! "Seniors, seniors, we adore; we will serve thee evermore." Our encore came in the form of a public stunt night. Few of the cast will ever forget the trying ordeal of proving their talents in front of the student body that unforgettable evening. Another scene we remember from that first year is Homecoming. Our float "We'll Cleanse the Eagles" crossed the stage in second place. We chose Bonnie Kirschbaum as our court royalty, her escort was Leo Kitelinger. The first act ended with Cora Rae Kessler winning the honor award.

In the fall of 1962 we opened the curtain on the second act as Sophomores. The cast consisted of four new members--Dick Heuer, Mike Baker, Richard Junk, and Shirley Slater, but Warren Stearns and Sharon Bradley left our company. This act was directed by Miss Govier and Mr. Farrey. The leads were filled by Shirley Haas, president; Ken Kartman, vice-president; Joyce Hauk, secretary; and Steve Kauffman, treasurer. Cora Rae Kessler represented us on the Student Council as well as Rod Klauer. Our Homecoming float, "Time For Victory" wasn't as successful that season, but it did finish third. Rod Klauer and Donnalene Bartels acted as court royalty. In order to increase the casts' savings, we sold little green and white derbies for 75¢ apiece at tournament time. Shirley Haas became honor student, thus ending the second act.

In August of 1963 the cast came back as Juniors, missing Mike Baker, Dick Heuer, and Jerry Unbehaun. Later that year, however, Janis Cobean and Donald Kafar appeared on stage. The number of directors increased to four: Miss Govier, Mr. Farrey, Mr. Downer, and Mrs. Nalan. Our president was Joyce Hauk; our vice-president, Jim Cadwell; and our secretary-treasurer, Linnette Zimmer. We elected Rod Klauer and Shirley Haas to the Student Council. The entire season was a successful, though turbulent one. Our grand entrance was Homecoming. Our float "We've Got 'Em Where We Want 'Em," our skit, and our window display placed us first on the billings. Gale Kruger and Donnalene Bartels acted as the junior couple on the court. On December 17 we received our class rings, a token of three long acts. The next important scene arrived May 1 with our Prom, "Relay to Romance." King Tom Noel and Queen Shirley Haas reigned over our beautifully decorated dance. We were proud to be the first to use the new gym as a setting for the enchantment and fond memories a Junior Prom provides for its cast. The following week, May 8, we went on stage again with our class play, Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest." The cast was a small, though talented one, including Tom Noel, Kathy Meighan, Ken Kartman, Shirley Haas, Gary Meier, Joyce Hauk, Danny Kitto, Leo Kitelinger, and Linnette Zimmer and Carolyn Dalton, student directors. Mrs. Benish spent many long difficult hours as director, working to make the play a success. How many of us remember our vote not to decorate for the 1964 Class Night, and the seniors' threatened boycott of our play? Shirley Haas was chosen as Badger Girl, while Rod Klauer and Tom Noel were our Badger Boys. The traditional wooden spoon was passed down to honor student, Shirley Haas, and so ended Act III.

Finally on August 26, 1964, forty-three members came back to finish the long-awaited last act. Act IV has been a busy one thus far. Our activities have been supervised by Mr.

Morley and Mr. Tornowske. We've been led by President Rod Klauer, Vice-President Carolyn Dalton, and Secretary-Treasurer Linnette Zimmer. Once again our float placed first in the Homecoming Parade. Our theme was "Swamp the Chieftians," and the cast worked together to build and stuff a gigantic blue wave. We were honored to have Dennis Reed and Janis Cobean reign as King and Queen over the gala events of the evening. Bonnie Kirschbaum was also on the court, with Leo Kitelinger as her escort. There have been many "memorable" scenes in our final act. We held a bake sale on March 28, 1965. On April 2 we sponsored a senior basketball game. The senior boys beat the faculty all-stars, and the seniors girls got trimmed by the public grade school. Our next adventure was April 15. Although the flood stopped the trains, it didn't stop the seniors. At 2:00 in the morning we boarded a bus for Chicago. We spent a day touring O'Hare Airport, two museums, an aquarium, the zoo, McCormick Place, the Prudential Building, Skid Row, and Chinatown. It was a bus load of tired-but-happy seniors that pulled into Cassville late that same night. Now we've reached the end of the fourth act. May 21 is Class Night; Cora Rae Kessler is valedictorian, and Shirley Haas is salutatorian. The curtain will fall Tuesday evening, May 25, 1965, at 8:00 with the presentation of diplomas. The Play is ended.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is now the year 1981. Why on earth should this year be so important? Perhaps if I would give you the exact date you would know immediately to what I'm referring. It is January 20, a fine crisp morning. By now you all know that it is the Inauguration Day. What a memorable day for our Class of 1965. We all received invitations to attend the Inauguration ceremonies. The Class of '65 was entertained at a special Inaugural Breakfast. It was just like a reunion as we met some of our old classmates for the first time in years. However, most of our attention was focused on the President-elect, Miss CAROLYN DALTON! We all knew that she was a born leader after that successful yearbook. Evidently, the majority of the U.S. population thought her to be an excellent leader also. President-elect CAROLYN DALTON will never have to worry about security because at her side was her security agent, DANNY KITTO! It must have been after that 1965 flood that CAROLYN realized that fish didn't receive the proper attention. So, she appointed DALE KRUGER as Secretary of Tropical Fish Breeding, a new state department. It wasn't long before we learned that LEO KITELINGER operated a night club in Reno, Nevada. Anyone with any money at all comes to see JAN KLAUER sing and dance there. His pretty wife, the former SHIRLEY SLATER, works as a waitress there. Our class was very proud to have two gold medalists in the 1980 Olympics! DANNY COOPER really put Cassville on the map when he broke the broad jump record with his jump of thirty feet. BONNIE KIRSCHBAUM, the other gold medalist, ran the mile in three minutes and thirty seconds which is also a new world's record. Last year, "Romeo & Juliet" won the Best Motion Picture Award! Co-starring in this movie were JIM CADWELL and JANIS COBEAN. JIM, playing the part of "Romeo," won the Oscar for the Best Actor. JANIS, playing the part of "Juliet," won the Oscar for the Best Actress. No one can blame our class for being ardent Green Bay Packer fans. Not every class went to high school with a center like DENNIS REED. REED, who has been playing pro football for ten years, even has his own personal manager, MORRIE BAUSCH! TOM NOEL is a regular starting pitcher for the New York Mets. Two years ago he was voted the Most Valuable Player in the National League. He is an exceptionally good player, winning 25 out of 27 ball games last year! His wife, the former SHIRLEY HAAS, has a seasonal ticket for a seat in the Met's Metrodome. This way, she can catch all of TOM'S homeruns. A few years ago, STEVE BOSSERT and DANNY LENZ formed a partnership, and now they are the owners of the B & L Honda Corporation. I guess that is one of the most thriving businesses anywhere in the United States. The classmate who had to travel the farthest was DONNALENE BARTELS. She is a sidewalk painter in Paris and came to see her good friend inaugurated. LAUREL LEY happened to be in the United States visiting relatives. However, if you are a very fashion-minded individual, you've probably met LAUREL LEY as a model in Paris at the famous House of Dior. NANCY BLUM is employed as a woman taxicab driver in New York City. She drove to Washington, D.C. with an old-time friend, LUANN REED. LUANN works as a personal secretary to our U.N. Ambassador. CORA RAE KESSLER loves her work as a tool and die maker at the Rapid Die. In her spare time, CORA tunes pianos. TERI KIRSCHBAUM is a very successful comic strip cartoonist for the NEW YORK TIMES. Of course, our class wouldn't be complete without a professor. Who else but BILL BIGGIN could be the head professor of physics at the University of Chicago? ALBERTA BREUER loves her work as a dietician at the Hawaiian Hilton in Hawaii. It is almost unbelievable, but DENNY LEY works as a chef there. LUANN BAUSCH works behind the scenes as a costume designer for movies. She, in fact, designed the costumes for "Juliet." RAE ANN FRIED is employed by The Last Traveling Circus and dives daringly off a 100-ft. tower into a little tub of water. GARY MEIER is a professional elevator operator in the Prudential Building in Chicago. His morning hours are spent as an IBM operator. KATHY MEIGHAN is a domestic animal trainer. She always did love animals, and she is quite well known for her novelty act with cows. RICHARD JUNK is a professional social dancing instructor at Junk's Dancing Studios in Iowa. DENNY LAU is employed by the Wisconsin State Government as an agricultural research worker. MARLENE VOGT, who was practically the last one to get her driver's license, really surprised our class. She holds the title, Queen of Demolition Derby Drivers.

DIANE MEIER, although very petite, is a heavy machine operator and is now employed by the Meier & Sons Construction Company. As a hobby, she is a motorcycle instructor. MIKE DAVIDSON worked his way up the ladder, and he is now the womens' apparel shop sales manager at Macy's in New York. ROD KLAUER, who studied English so diligently in high school so that he could make it through college, did fulfill his dream of becoming an engineer. He is now the chief construction engineer at Disneyland. The Navy always fascinated DONNA ADRIAN. Now she is a Wave secretary who meets many new recruits from the Midwest area. STEVE KAUFFMAN, who is home on leave, was able to attend the Inauguration. He is an admiral aboard the S.S. KAUFFMAN, an atomic submarine. As a hobby, he is a wigmaker. Somehow, through legal means, STEVE obtains this human hair. Anyway, I think it's legal because STEVE isn't the type of an individual who does anything illegal. DON KAFAR is a professional singer who has been more popular than the Beatles were in their time. His famous hit tune, "You Ain't Nothin' But a Hounddog," will live on for many years. I think that our class first recognized DONALD'S ability to sing on our class trip to Chicago. The morning passed so quickly that it wasn't long before it was time for CAROLYN to take the Oath of Office. Unbelievable, yet, JOYCE HAUK was the Chief Justice who administered it. She had become a very famous lawyer and was very well known because of all the heated arguments in which she was involved. That night, we attended the Inaugural Ball. There to entertain us was GALE KRUGER, who conducts the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. He has developed a very different type of rhythm which is very popular. CHRISTINE LAU was unable to attend because she is a Peace Corp nurse in the jungles of South Viet Nam. She is married to one of the few Vietnamese doctors. KEN KARTMAN who was also unable to attend. However, he shocked us the most! Could you believe it? KEN is a missionary brain surgeon in Peru where he speaks Spanish very fluently. Of course, he had been excellently trained by Miss Blumer. I, LINNETTE ZIMMER, taught Spanish for a few years, but teaching just wasn't challenging enough for me. Soon, I will be on another secret mission for the CIA!

As you can see, the Class of 1965 surely was quite different from other classes. Yet, it was one of which everyone could be very proud!

DEDICATION

We would like to dedicate the past few pages to the Senior Class of 1965. With their leadership qualities, they have helped to make this school year a great success in sports, music, drama, and various extracurricular activities. Academically they have proven their true ability. Therefore, we would like to wish them the best of luck in their future careers. CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS!
